Kittrell's Springs Female College.

GRANVILLE COUNTY, N. C.

THE NEXT SESSION of this Institution will open the second Wednesday in February, 1868. The location is unsurpassed for health and accessibility.

During the past session, in a family of nearly two hundred, there has scarcely been a case of sickness. The health of many invalid young ladies has been thoroughly restored by the celebrated mineral water found here, and they have prosecuted their studies with entire success.

We are immediately on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, within less than a half mile of Kittrell's Depot, and in telegraphic communication with all parts of the country.

Every facility is afforded for the most thorough and extensive education.

TERMS MODERATE AND ACCOMMODATING.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. Millinery is in no demand at Kittrell's. Parents tell us that their daughters cost them less here, in this respect, than even at home. Taking into consideration the items of dress and medical attendance, there is no cheaper school in the South. Besides, we are determined to accommodate our patrons as far as we can, as to time of payment, and to put female education within the reach of the people, in the present depressed condition of the country. OUR DAUGHTERS MUST BE EDUCATED.

I HAVE VERY RECENTLY PERFECTED THE organization necessary to conduct, on the largest scale, the business of selling Lands, Mills, Mines, Furnaces, Water-Powers, &c.

My partner, Colonel R. J. PAGE, is in charge of our office in New York. In Philadelphia and Baltimore, I have Associates of the highest respectability and responsibility.

And for the sale of Lands, Mines, &c. in North Carolina, I am associated with D. W. COURTS, Esq., of Reidsville, for many years State Treasurer of N. C.

The facilities this Agency offers for the sale of Lands are not surpassed in the South. In regard to Mines of all kinds, I have made contracts with parties in the cities North of this, who make that branch of the business a specialty, both in this country and Europe, securing to me the widest possible field of operations, and in this city I have the aid and services of that accomplished Mineralogist and Assayer, Col. WILLIAM GILHAM, for the prompt analysis of all minerals that may be sent to me,—thus determining the value of mines, before they are offered for sale.

TERMS:—For selling lands, five per cent commission on all sales actually made, but no charge whatever, unless a sale is effected. For Mines, an additional contingent fee, the subject of contract in each case, and payable out of proceeds of sale.

Reference is made to public men generally throughout the State, with most of whom I have the pleasure of being personally acquainted.

CAUCUSING.

In the most excited political times of the past, there has been nothing in the way of caucusing, equal to that practised by the majority in the present so-called Convention. Scarcely a night passes, we understand, that the Radical members, together with such Radical out-siders as may chance to be in the city, white and black, are not in private conclave, devising and maturing their schemes against the good of the State. As pretty much all of their action is discussed and, we may say, perfected in caucus, it is as though everything that is done were in reality transacted in secret session.

Mr. Ashley, one of the Radical delegates from somewhere up North, via New Hanover, in a recent letter to the Wilmington Post, which paper is said to be under his editorial control, furnishes the following incident of one of these recent clandestine nocturnal conclaves:

"Gov. Holden addressed the meeting in a patriotic and eloquent strain. He explained the manner in which the loyal people of North Carolina, although in a majority, became involved in the rebellion. He counselled the members of the Convention to insist upon undoubted loyalty as an essential qualification for citizenship."

We can imagine the scene when the X. P. G. thus unbosomed himself. We can fancy the ingenuity with which he explained how it came to pass that he became so "involved," that he disdained to use a common goose-quill to sign the ordinance of secession, but employed "a fine new gold pen,"—how he predicted, in the exuberance of his "involved" enthusiasm, that the anniversary of that memorable 20th. of May would be celebrated, in all future time, by bonfires and illuminations,—how he continued to become so "involved" that he spurned "Abe Lincoln's advertising," and requested the Secretary of War to send him a Minnie rifle or two as payment for what the government already owed him,—how he pledged the "last dollar and last man" in defence of the Southern Confederacy,—and how he implored our Generals to assume the aggressive and march to Washington! As he "explained" all of this, we can imagine, too, how Col. Rodman, and others in the meeting, who were similarly "involved," nodded their heads and winked their eyes in penitent concert.

And when the X. P. G., as aforesaid, insisted upon "undoubted loyalty," as the qualification for citizenship, we may readily conceive that he proceeded to explain the manner in which he became so "involved," that, after the war was over, he declared that his motive in turning "Peace man," in 1863, was to "save slavery," and, in 1865, proclaimed through his organ, the Standard, that uncompromising opposition to negro suffrage "was the most conspicuous landmark" of Unionism or loyalty. Whereat, we can still further fancy,—though it requires some stretch of imagination to do so,—the blank countenances of Cuffee Mayo, Hood, Galloway, Carey, and others of the sable brethren. It was a scene, doubtless, fit to be transmitted to the "archives of gravity!"—worthy the pencil of the Painter-Statesman, who represents Wake, in part.

THE SIGNS OF THE TIMES are obscure.—Passing events throw no clear light upon the future. The ship of State is far out at sea on a dark, stormy night,—the crew in a state of mutiny and insubordination.—Whether the vessel can breast the storm, till day-light springs up, is doubtful, yet the few stout hearts on board are hopeful.

The question is often asked us, what will the President do? We do not see what he can do, but veto the unconstitutional bills of Congress, remonstrate, and adhere, himself, to the Constitution, whatever else Congress may do. If Andrew Jackson were where Andrew Johnson is, he would not have borne with so refractory and revolutionary a body, as Mr. Johnson has done.—He would long since have had around him men upon whom he could rely, in any emergency, and we are inclined to think that many, if not all, of the refractory and revolutionary men about him would, before this, have been in Fortress Monroe. But there seem to be none in proper positions that Mr Johnson can trust, and none who have power to stand up with him for the Constitution.

There is no hope of matters growing any better between the Congress and the President. The Congress will go to its full length, in the virulence of its action against the South. The question arises, What shall the South do?

It is known that the Conservatives of Alabama have counselled total non-action, on the part of the whites, in voting upon the Constitution. They have little or no hope of defeating so villainous a Constitution as the one which will be presented for their ratification, on the 8th. of February next. They counsel careful registration and the purging of the lists, but admonish every man opposed to the Constitution to remain from the polls.

There are but two courses, it strikes us, that Conservative men can take, or ought to have taken from the first. They ought to have been united, to have been as one man, either to have been stolidly silent and indifferent, not casting a single vote, or for all of them to have gone to the polls, and secured the control of the Conventions.

We have no idea that the Constitution, to be adopted by the illiterate, unwise, unconstitutional body, now sitting in the Capitol, will be such as to secure the approval of any honest, sincere, intelligent man in the State. It is not in the nature of things to look for such a Constitution as true North Carolinians would endorse. Our people must, therefore, organize, and act 'as one man, and act together, in the disposal of it. The Conservatives of the State are in no condition to succeed, if divided or distracted. There must be entire harmony of purpose and design. They must either adopt the do-nothing policy of the Conservatives of Alabama, or they must all vote to defeat the so called Constitution and the Radical candidates. They must have a full ticket of candidates in every County, and every County must be thoroughly canvassed.

NEW RECONSTRUCTION MEASURES.

The Radicals have a majority in Congress capable of carrying any measure. If they choose to do so, they can, of course, carry the new reconstruction measures over the President's veto. Perhaps, the only thing that will prevent it, will be the earnest remonstrances of the Northern people, in public meetings. The Democrats and Conservatives of the North so strongly believe in the self-destruction of the Radical party, that it is not likely they will do anything to arrest its violence.

The true people of the South cannot, of course, give their sanction or approval to these measures. Whatever they do, must be regarded as a fixed opposition to the whole scheme of negro supremacy. Should the South maintain a steady front, can the Radical programme succeed? On this point, the New York World has the following sensible remarks:

"We may as well take it for granted that the new supplementary abomination will be passed. But will it accomplish its object? Can a military dictatorship give permanent success to the negro reconstruction scheme? When the horse is led (or dragged) to the water, can you make him drink? Congress may do this, the President that, General Grant the other, and the Supreme Court nothing; but the great question after all, is, what will the South do? Is it possible to establish Republican governments in defiance of the wishes and determination of the people? If a majority of the people of the South, including all the wealth, nearly all the intelligence, and the best activity, energy, and address of the whole section, confront the Reconstruction scheme with a steady, stubborn, unquailing opposition, can it succeed? Unquestionably, it cannot. Its only chance of success lies in bringing a majority of members, and a preponderance of social, moral, and intellectual influence to its willing support. The experiment has already proceeded far enough to show that this can never be done; never, never!"

YESTERDAY.

The so-called Convention was in session until a late hour on yesterday, and we necessarily, therefore, are compelled to curtail the proceedings somewhat, this morning.

The report of the Committee on the "Governor and Executive officers" was under discussion, and the innovations which it contemplates were most ably resisted by Messrs. Durham, Graham, of Orange, and others. We do not propose publishing this report, as yet. It will be time enough to do so, when its features shall become a part of the so-called Constitution, but we may refer to it, editorially, to-morrow.

A communication was received from Mr. Battle, the Public Treasurer, giving his reasons for declining to pay the per diem of the members of the Convention, upon the certificate of its President, in obedience to the resolution adopted a few days since. This document is unanswerable in its positions, and is sufficient, one would suppose, to satisfy any mind of the correctness and legality of Mr. Battle's course. We will publish the letter to-morrow.

IMPORTANT TRIAL.—One of the most thrilling trials that ever took place in this State is now in progress at Statesville.—Thomas Dula, a young man of about twenty-five years of age, is being tried before his Honor, Judge Shipp, in the Superior Court of Iredell County, for the murder of Miss Laura Foster. And Ann Melton is arraigned as accessory. It appears from the evidence that in May 1866, Laura Foster arose from her bed in her father's house, about an hour before day, and taking her father's horse, which was tied that night near the door, traveled some few miles on a road to a place to which the horse was tracked, and near which her body was subsequently found in the woods. Dula and Mrs. Melton were absent from their homes the night on which Laura Foster left her father's, and were seen next morning in the neighborhood of the place where the body of Laura Foster was found buried. It is charged that Mrs. Melton was jealous of the attentions paid Laura Foster by Dula, and therefore aided and abetted in the murder. The incidents, as developed before the jury, are of the most thrilling character, and the Court House is crowded with an eager multitude who listen with breathless attention to the evidence. Gov. Vance, with one or two others, are assigned as counsel for the prisoners, and J. M. Clement, of Davie, Mr. Boyden, of this city, and Mr. Solicitor Caldwell will prosecute on the part of the State. Ann Melton is about 24 years of age and quite a neat and interesting person in her appearance. The evidence, so far as given in, we hear, is altogether circumstantial. The prisoners bear themselves very calmly and appear to take great interest in the proceedings, frequently rising to suggest inquiries and to prompt their counsel. The trial commenced on Tuesday, and on Wednesday afternoon, when the court opened, not more than one fourth of the witnesses had been examined. We learn that there are about ninety witnesses in the case. —Old North State.

NEGRO KILLED.—A negro, calling himself Nick Williams, was lodged in jail at this place on Tuesday, charged with killing, on Monday, about half a mile above Ansonville, another negro, named Peter Watkins, formerly the property of Dr. C. Watkins.

Williams admits that Pete was shot by a pistol which he held, but claims that it was accidental.

Nick claims to be a citizen of Oberlin, Ohio, and is a tailor by trade; that he has been in the United States Army, and was wounded during the late war; that he is in the South as a "missionary" from a society of which Fred. Douglas is President, for furthering religion and education "among the people"—not "politics, but religion and education." That he has been pushing these objects in eastern counties of this State, and that he has been for the last month or two operating in Richmond county. If Nick's object is as pacific as he claims, why was he so heavily armed, notwithstanding the orders of our military rulers?—Wadesboro' Argus.

The "Constitutional Convention," (So-called.)

MONDAY, Jan. 27, 1868.

The Convention was called to order at 11 o'clock, A. M.

Prayer by the Rev. Dr. Smith, of the city.

Mr. Laflin asked leave of absence for Mr. Legg, until Thursday next. Granted.

Mr. King, of Lincoln, presented a petition from 90 citizens of his county, asking the removal of "rebel" State officers. Referred.

Hood, (negro,) a memorial respecting the election in Sampson county. Referred.

Hood, (negro,) a resolution that a Committee of five be appointed by the Chair, whose duty it shall be to gather such information as will enable them to report, at an early day, to this Convention, a list of such persons as may be presented to Congress to be relieved of their disabilities.

Mr. Rodman, a resolution in relation to taxation. Referred.

Mr. Glover, an ordinance to relieve debtors. Lies over.

Mr. Duckworth, an ordinance giving the Superior Courts power to examine applicants for admission to the bar in this State. Referred.

Mr. French, of Bladen, an ordinance to repeal the provisions of the Revenue law, that provide that corporations and employers shall list persons employed and pay their taxes. Referred.

Mr. Candler, an ordinance repealing the general amnesty granted soldiers, &c., passed by the General Assembly, December, 1866, except so much as applies to females. Referred.

Mr. Jones, of Caldwell, an ordinance regulating the expenses of the Convention. Referred.

Mr. Tourgee, a resolution in relation to Bank issues.

Mr. Laflin, a resolution suspending the collection of debts, made prior to May 1865, for ten years, without interest, and those made from May 1865, to Jan. 1868, five years, without interest. Referred.

Pierson, (negro,) a resolution providing for the admission of persons of all races and color to the benefits of the D. D. and Blind Institution and other benevolent Institutions. Referred.

Cherry (negro) a resolution in regard to suffrage. Referred.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

Mr. Abbott said that his ordinance was next on the calendar, but as he did not wish to consume time in its discussion, until more time was allowed for consideration, asked that it be continued on the calendar. Agreed to.

Mr. Daniel's resolution, as to indemnifying mechanics and artisans for their labor, was taken up, and, on motion of Mr. Heaton, adopted.

COMMITTEE OF WHOLE.

The hour of 12 having arrived, the Convention went into Committee of the Whole.

The Report of the Committee on "Governor and other Executive officers" was taken up and considered.

Mr. Abbott moved to pass upon the same by sections; which was agreed to, and the Secretary read the report, when

Mr. French, of Chowan, moved to add, in the 4th line, after the words "Superintendent of Public Works," the words "and Immigration," and, in a speech of some length, proceeded to describe the resources of the State, and to show the good effect of an immigration of industrious and enterprising working-men into this State.

Mr. Rodman objected to the amendment; thought it had better come in the 18th section and be added to the duties of the Bureau of Agriculture and Statistics.

Mr. McDonald, of Chatham, was in favor of anything that encouraged working men to come into the State.

Galloway (negro) wanted the avenue open to all, &c.

Mr. Congleton wanted to know what class they wished to invite here; too many poor people here already.

Carey, (negro,) said the laborer in North Carolina had been the negro, and there were thousands of them idle now, and yet we heard gentlemen talk about bringing immigrators here for to exterminate the poor black man or to send him away to some bleak region. If anything was to be distributed, the poor black should have it. He would not object to some of them immigrators, but he saw too much disposition, on the part of all white men, to disregard the interests of the black men. "Dem immigrators come down here, wid dere implements, and two of dem cultivate 40 acres of wheat, whar two black men couldn't cultivate two; darfore, dey would be exterminated. De negro had planted de wilderness, built up de State to what it was; darfore, if anything was to be given, de negro was entitled to it. Talk about the State being flung in de rear; he would tell de reason why—it was because de poor negro had been abused; dat was de reason de State was flung in de rear."

Hood, (negro,) favored the amendment, and, in the course of his remarks, stated he was totally opposed to any system of confiscation.

Mr. Abbott thought a separate Bureau would be better.

Mr. French withdrew the amendment, and gave notice that he would offer an amendment to the 18th section, when it was considered.

Mr. Rodman moved to strike out "two," and insert "four,"—making the term of office four years for Governor.

Carey, (negro,) an amendment, providing that the Governor or Lieutenant Governor shall be a colored man, when chosen, but he withdrew it.

Mr. Graham, of Orange, was opposed to any change in the Constitution of North Carolina. He did not recognize the power of this Convention as sufficient to make it. In regard to the term of office of the Governor, it should remain as it was, for if a bad one should be elected, he would be fastened upon the people for four years.

Mr. Rodman replied, advocating his amendment.

Mr. Tourgee opposed the amendment.

Harris, of Wake, (negro,) arose to a personal explanation, in regard to the amendment offered by Carey, (negro,) saying that no black man entertained such sentiments; that Carey's amendment had been drawn up by some Conservative, who imposed upon that gentleman's (Carey's) credulity. If it was denied, he held the name of the man in his hand.

Carey did'nt like Harris' remarks, and commenced an appeal to every member on "this delegation floor," but was informed, as he had withdrawn his amendment, he could not discuss it.

Mr. Hodnett said that if Harris' remark was meant for him, he would at once emphatically deny any connection with the matter; whereupon, Harris said he had no allusion to Mr. Hodnett, and, in fact, had not said it was a member of this body, but a Conservative did it, and he (Harris) could give the name, if it was desired.

Hood, (negro,) thought two years long enough.

Mr. Heaton moved, as an amendment to the amendment, to make it three years.

Mr. Watts opposed Mr. Heaton's amendment, and favored the four year term.

Both amendments were withdrawn, at the request of Mr. Abbott, who moved that all the terms of all the officers be four years.

Mr. Durham asked if a motion to amend the section by striking out "Lieut. Governor, Superintendent of Public Works, and Superintendent of Public Instruction," would be in order, after the Committee had decided to make the term of office for Governor four years.

The Chair decided that the motion must be made before.

Mr. Abbott withdrew his amendment, in order to indulge Mr. Durham, whereon Mr. D. then made the motion, saying that the creation of those offices was another innovation—an importation from other States,—another appropriation of the people's money to feed hungry party pets. The people were in no condition to increase the expenditures of the State. They were beggared, bankrupt and impoverished, yet gentlemen here spend their time in creating unfledged, useless and expensive offices. How could the people bear it? Common sense, common prudence, stamped such legislation as unwise, unjust and outrageous.

Mr. Abbott said it was a matter of no concern to him, what the length of Governor's term of office was, but the Lieutenant Governorship created no additional expense, as he would receive pay only while presiding over the Senate.

Mr. Durham replied, that whether they should have those officers, or not, was for the intelligent, tax-paying citizens of the State to say. Too many offices had been already created for party purposes.

Mr. Rodman thought the offices necessary and proceeded to advocate the measure, at some length.

Mr. French, of Chowan, thanked his God this was a day of innovation. Men who were, a few short years ago, slaves, were now on this floor in the capacity of Constitution framers. That was a great innovation.

Mr. Durham said the gentleman seemed a little excited. He would advise him to keep cool, and wanted him and others to understand that, although the number of Conservatives on this floor was small, they were not to be frightened into measures. He intended to oppose such wicked and vile legislation with all of his ability. He represented an intelligent and tax paying constituency; they had sent him here to protect their interests and defend their rights, and he would do it. It was true he felt out of place; it was true he felt the degradation of his State, when he looked around him, and saw the acts of Gaston, Badger, Morehead, and a host of North Carolina's noble sons, filled by ignorant blacks and uneducated white men, who were in no way identified with the interests of the State.

Mr. Ashley replied in a speech too lengthy to be here reported.

Harris, of Wake, (negro,) also had a speech to make on the subject.

On motion of Mr. Abbott, the Committee rose, the Chairman reported progress and asked leave to sit again.

A communication was received from the Public Treasurer, declining to pay the expenses of the Convention, on the ground that he could not, from the nature of his oath of office, or the pecuniary obligations of his bond; nor did the acts of Congress justify him in disbursing money in compliance with the resolution recently passed.

After some debate, it was determined to refer the matter to the Committee of three, appointed to wait on Gen. Canby, instructing them to request the General to issue an order to process their money.

On motion, the Convention adjourned.

A FAITHFUL OLD NEGRO.—We saw on record, yesterday, at the office of the County Court Clerk, the will of Tinsley Ashe, a faithful old negro who died on Rocky Point, some two or three months since. He was formerly the property of Mr. Thomas S. Ashe, of this county, and before and since the death of his master has served the family with faithfulness and zeal. He was among the very, very few who did not recognize the Emancipation Proclamation of President Lincoln and the right of the negroes to be free, but even after the war continued to labor for the family, placing in the hands of his mistress, as was customary with him, a portion of his earnings, which were a source of much relief amid the destitution which then generally prevailed.

By honest industry Tinsely amassed a comfortable little property, and being impressed with the near approach of his end, in July last made a will, bequeathing his property to those for whom he entertained the greatest affection and regard. This will was admitted to probate at the December term of our County Court. The first request it contained was that his body should have a decent Christian burial, and be interred as near the remains of his beloved master as would be agreeable to the family. He directed that his debts should first be paid, and out of the sum remaining he bequeathed to his kind mistress, for whom he expressed great affection, $600. To another member of the family he left $400; to his executor, a citizen of this place, $400; to his attorney, $200, and to a gentleman of this city, his horse, from whom it was formerly purchased.—Wilmington Journal.

VALUABLE INVESTMENT.—The Egypt Plantation, one of the best in this section, sold Wednesday for $3,500. Before the war this tract of land, consisting of about 13,000 acres, 600 of which are cleared, could not have been purchased for less than $20,000 in gold or its equivalent. Our friend, John Rossetter, became the purchaser,—Mr. Rossetter's purchase will demonstrate, beyond all cavil, that the capitalist can find no better place for the investment of surplus capital than in this vicinity. Now is the time to make purchases. Money is much wanted, and landed estates can be bought at prices that must induce those that have a superabundance to come here and buy.

We know nothing that would pay one-half the interest on the purchase money that plantations, (like Egypt,) even if the purchaser determined to permit them to lease for several years.—Journal of Commerce.

CONSTITUTIONAL SAFEGUARDS MUST BE DISREGARDED TO SAVE THE LIFE OF THE NATION."—This cant sentiment was repeated by Mr. Bingham in his late speech on the military dictator bill. It might as well be pretended that the constitutional safeguards which are provided in the physical system of man for the protection of the veins and arteries are unfavorable to longevity.—What life the nation has, what security of civil liberty or of the Union, apart from the constitution, we have yet to be informed.—This stereotyped phrase of "the life of the nation," as it is used by the radical leaders, means the life of their party.

We learn that a party of negro men went to the plantation of Wm. Foy, Esq., night before last, and stole several fine hogs. Mr. Foy sent a servant to the city yesterday morning, and we learn that he has succeeded in tracing up one of the hogs, but could not find the thieves.—Newbern Journal of Commerce.

Night before last as a negro woman was going to her home in the country, she was stopped about four miles from the city by a negro man, who took her shoes off her feet, and went on his way rejoicing, leaving the poor woman bare footed in the mud two or three miles from home.—Journal of Commerce.

SEWING MACHINES!

SINGER'S NEW FAMILY MACHINES!

CAN BE HAD AT MANUFACTURERS' PRICES

By Calling upon the Agency in Raleigh,

OVER THE MESSRS. TUCKER & CO'S STORE.

THE superior merits of the "Singer" Machines over all others, for either family use or manufacturing purposes, are so well established, and so generally admitted, that an enumeration of their relative excellences is no longer considered necessary.

The machine in question is simple, compact, durable and beautiful. It is quiet, light-running and capable of performing a range and variety of work never before attempted upon a single machine,—using either silk, twist, linen or cotton thread, and sewing with equal facility the VERY FINEST and coarsest materials, and anything between the two extremes, in the most beautiful and substantial manner.

THE

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

OF HARTFORD.

ASSETS OVER $7,000,000.

PAID POLICIES BY DEATH, IN NORTH CAROLINA, $33,000.

Judge E. A. BULKELEY, President. T. O. ENDERS, Secretary.

W. H. CROW,

MANAGER AND GENERAL AGENT

FOR THE STATE OF

NORTH CAROLINA AND PART OF VIRGINIA,

IN COMPARING THIS COMPANY WITH FORTY-TWO COMPANIES, AND BY THE REPORT of the Insurance Commissioners of Massachusetts, the following facts appear, under OFFICIAL ENDORSEMENT:

1st. The Ætna issued more policies than either of forty other Companies. More than four times the average, AND NEARLY ONE-TENTH OF ALL.

2nd. That excluding Capital, the Ætna's ratio of Assets to Liabilities is larger than that of twenty-nine Companies, AND MORE THAN THE AVERAGE OF ALL.

3rd. That the Ætna's receipts are larger than those of either of thirty-eight other Companies, and more than three times the average, and more than ONE-THIRTEENTH of all.

4th. That the Ætna's ratio of expenses to receipts is less than that of twenty-nine other Companies, and LESS than the average of all.

5th. That the Ætna's ratio of increase in premium receipts to its cost, is greater than that of any other Company, and four times the average. [See table "C," in Insurance Report.]

6th. That the Ætna's ratio of losses is sixteen per cent less than the average.

7th. That the Ætna's ratio per cent. of increase in Assets is greater than that of any other Company, and more than four times the average.

It will be observed from these comparisons that many Companies do not make so good a showing as the Ætna, although they are unquestionably reliable.

The "ÆTNA" is an old and well-tried institution, and the above extract from the highest official authority upon the subject of Life Insurance commends the Company at once to the thoughtful and serious enquirer, who wishes to make a CERTAIN provision for those depending upon him.

The Ætna loans her customers one-half the premium as long as life lasts, at six per cent., if desired, and gives no restrictions in location or travel in the United States, at any season of the year, and pays her members the

of any Company doing business in this State, and is PERMANENTLY LOCATED HERE; has paid more Revenue into the STATE TREASURY than any other Company, and paid more money to Widows and Orphans than any other, and therefore, with all of these facts, well deserves the largest patronage, and IS RECEIVING IT.

The ÆTNA, being a STOCK COMPANY, gives all the benefit of dividends to her insured and none of the liabilities usual in "Mutual Insurance."

Six per cent interest is allowed upon the Capital Stock of $150,000, and the balance of the profit goes to the insured, which profit or dividend is larger than any other Company doing business in the State.

The ÆTNA has over

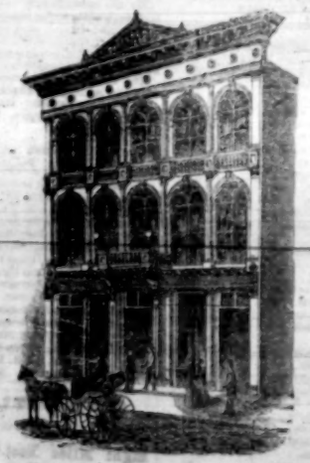
ABOVE LIABILITIES.



THE ÆTNA IS A STRANGER TO LITIGATION. A VERY IMPORTANT FACT. AND HAS NEVER REFUSED TO RENEW A POLICY LAPSED DURING THE WAR. HAS 45,000 MEMBERS.

Any other facts will be cheerfully imparted in the office, over the Store of Messrs. W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & Co.

MAYOR'S COURT.—Nathan High, colored, charged with stealing bacon, flour and a lot of carpenter's tools from Roden Loyd, colored, was returned to the County Court.

A lot of harness can be found at the Mayor's office, subject to the claim of the owner. The man who brought the harness, Sterling Harrison, colored, to the office, deserves great credit.

SUPREME COURT.—Opinions delivered as follows:

By PEARSON, C. J.—In Whedbee, exr. vs. Shamonhouse, in equity, from Pasquotank, directs a decree according to the opinion filed. In Toping vs. Toping, in equity from Hyde, decree of reference. In Cohn vs. Cohn, in equity, from Craven, no error.

By BATTLE, J.—In Parker vs. Stallings, from Perquimans, judgment reversed, and ecbire de novo. In Israel vs. Ivey, from Robeson, judgment reversed and judgment here. In Peterson vs. Matthis, in equity from Sampson, decree for plaintiff against Matthis, dismissed as to the other defendants at their costs.

By READE, J.—In Winston vs. Fenner, Laurence & Co., from Perquimans, judgment affirmed. In Oliver vs. Perry, from Jones, error. In State vs. Hicks, from Craven, no error.

WE ARE requested to state that the new Daily paper, proposed to be started in this City, by Messrs. Hearne & Dunham, late of the Wilson Carolinian, will not appear until Wednesday morning. Delay in receiving their material causes the disappointment.

WE REGRET to learn that Dr. T. E. Thompson, stopping at Fentress' Boarding House, was stricken with paralysis, on Sunday night. Dr. T was a gallant officer of the 4th. N. C. Troops, during the war.—We are glad to learn that he is doing well, and hope that he may shortly be restored.

ON DIT.—It is said that the Committees on the various branches of the Constitution will have no work to do. The ex-Prov. Gov. has a Constitution "cut and dried" for them. The Committees, therefore, could have had no use for the Clerk they asked for, except to copy off the great man's MSS.—Verily, the X. P. has a multitude of labors to perform. In addition to his editorial duties he writes Constitutions, and, according to the New York World, reports, &c., for the Freedmen's Bureau.

THEATRE.—Bulwer's charming Drama of the Lady of Lyons was admirably rendered, before a good audience, last evening, by Sargent's Dramatic Company. Mr. Phelps, as Claude Melnotte, Mrs. Sutton, as Pauline, Mr. Bowes, as Col. Damas, Mr. Sufton as Beauseant, and Mr. Sargent, himself, as Glavis, all performed their respective roles almost unexceptionably. The farce, also, the "Maid of Munster," was a capital one and irresistibly presented.

A complimentary benefit to Mr. Sargent has been tendered by a number of citizens.

To night, an attractive programme is presented.

A DIABOLICAL MURDER.—On Wednesday night last, a most diabolical murder was committed near the Southern part of the town. An ex-U. S. soldier, who for sometime past has been acting as a Tailor for the troops here, was seen in town after dark slightly intoxicated. He was in company with several soldiers, who said they would take care of him. It is evident he left town with them. As it was early day he had secured for his honest toil between one and two hundred dollars. Thursday morning the body of the poor fellow was found on the Railroad track, his head on the rail—his skull indented evidently by some blunt instrument. The presumption is that he was robbed and then murdered. An inquest was held over the body. It is to be hoped that no efforts will be spared to detect and bring to justice the perpetrators of this atrocious deed.—Goldsboro' News.

HODNETT AND HOLDEN.

YANCEYVILLE, Jan. 24, 1867.

Messrs Editors: For twenty years, Holden denounced our representative, as an enemy to the negro institution and the South, because he would not vote the Democratic ticket. Then he was disloyal to North Carolina and the South. Now Holden denounces him as a Copperhead and disloyal to the United States, simply because he does not vote the Radical ticket. What makes Capt. Jo. Holden loyal, with his hands dyed deepred in Union blood, shed at Roanoke Island? I ask what makes him loyal, but voting the Radical ticket?

"Mr. Hodnett, and others of the little squad, should be reminded that the honest and loyal people have decided against them."

So says the Standard, of the 20th. And Mr. Hodnett is put down, in the same paper, "as one of the baffled leaders of a justly-suppressed rebellion," and by the man who called the "war God's holy cause," and pledged North Carolina's "last man and last dollar" to secession! Gracious Heaven, why is such wickedness tolerated, and such a man allowed not only to live, but to lead?

Mr. Hodnett, as every man in Caswell knows, opposed Holden all his life. In February, 1861, when Holden was advocating Convention and voting for it at the polls, Mr. Hodnett was urging the people against secession.

When Holden was boasting, in his paper, how much he gave to carry on the war, and scolding the people of Warren County for not giving more liberally, Mr. Hodnett refused to give at all and actually destroyed the notes he held on his neighbors, before he would pay tax on them to carry on the war. Yet Holden is loyal and Hodnett disloyal!

When Mr. Hodnett sustained Lincoln's call for 75,000 men, Holden said he turned his back on the old Union from that day henceforth and forever; yet Holden is loyal and Hodnett disloyal!

The same number of the Standard talks about Hodnett and the "white club." Mr. Hodnett is the only member of the white club, that could be elected from Caswell.—We tell Holden and the black club, that this is a white man's government. We have 30,000 registered majority. We will give the negro such rights as he can enjoy in Ohio and other free States. We will shut the negro out from office and he will go further South, where the negro must rule, if negro suffrage prevails.

People from Onslow, Craven and Jones, are now coming West to avoid negro rule, which prevails in those Counties. They say that neither life nor property is safe there. Let certain territory be given to the negro, where he can have his negro Judges and negro Governors. We can't and will not have them. Just before the war, slavers—Yankee vessels (I dare say)—brought into Southern ports African slaves. These savages would eat snakes and lizards. No lizard dared make his appearance in the corn field; these loyal voters would drop their hoes and devour him as soon as Holden would a Union man in 1861.

But the same paper, speaking of the Alabama Conservatives who set apart a day to call upon God to save them from negro domination, says: "Poor fellows! They prayed during the rebellion that the Lord would save Richmond and Charleston and Mobile, but the sky was as brass over their heads. Their prayers will avail them as little now. We wonder that God does not smite them, as Ananias and Sapphira were smitten, when they thus approached Him with a lie in their mouths."

Did Holden not pray to save Richmond? Did he not urge, in his paper, in 1862, that President Davis must take Washington City or lose Richmond? Did he not say, when "we have Washington, our faces will be towards Philadelphia."

Yes, Holden, like the Alabama Conservatives, prayed for the safety of Richmond; unlike the Alabama Conservatives, he rejoiced in the fall of Raleigh, his own Capital.

Now he wonders why the Lord does not smite those who payed for the safety of Richmond, as He did Ananias. Well, if we had to philosophize on that text, we would say, that Holden is a living monument that the Lord does not deal with all such an Ananias alike.

QUESTION: Can a government stand that enfranchises ignorant savage lizard eaters, and disfranchises Judge Reade, of the Supreme Court, Confederate States Senator; Judge Brooks, of the Federal Court, who served as a Confederate Captain of Militia; United States District Attorney Starbuck, member of Secesh Convention; Hon. Thos. Settle, Confederate Captain—and all loyal.

CASWELL.

For the Sentinel,

A WORD TO THE CONVENTION.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—In common with every man in this Commonwealth, who loves it as he ought, I feel a deep interest in your Convention and its proceedings.

For a long course of years previous to the late disastrous war, under our own form of government, and under the Constitution framed by the wisdom of our fathers, we enjoyed comfort, protection, honor, security and happiness. But by the fortunes of war these invaluable blessings have been lost and our civil and political condition is now strangely anomalous. True, we have still our religious privileges left us—thank God, they have not been destroyed,—and in our desolated land, we may still walk among the sepulchres of our forefathers. But in those former years,—whilst our good old Constitution and the laws, faithfully administered, threw their broad shield of protection over our persons and property—we enjoyed, to their full extent, the usual rights and immunities of any other free Common wealth. Add to these the blessings of lawful marriage, friends, relations and children, and all the sweet charities of home. The price of preserving these rich blessings was indeed great, very great; but the price of anarchy, revolution and the inextricable confusion which have succeeded, is great beyond all calculation. Those who rule over us are confessedly powerful, and thus far—through years far sadder than those of the war—have proved themselves unrelenting in their rigor. But all States yield at last to circumstances, and policy may yet grant what professed love and magnanimity withhold.

The most ardent wish of my heart is PEACE,—not in name but in fact,—a secure peace, after a most disastrous war, bloody, fatal, destructive and expensive beyond all example, but which, for forty long years of injustice, oppression and insult, I believed, and still believe, to have been inevitable. We have still many and great resources left us, if we were only permitted to develope them. And the times never called with so loud and commanding a voice for wisdom, discernment, integrity,—for temperate, timely and gradual concession with dignity and security,—and for an economy, rigid and undeviating, on the part of our rulers. The times call equally loud for obedience to all lawful authority, systematic acquiescence under our very heavy pressure, constant vigilance and steadiness of purpose, is all the people of the land.

These are the circumstances in which you have been called together to form a new Constitution. The times are sadly out of joint. Every thing is in disorder. These are days of darkness and of desolating tyranny.—Your surroundings are not therefore the most auspicious, for the mighty work before you. Remember that rages and patriots of other days, in times of peace, good order and security, were engaged in framing that Constitution under which our people lived happily for so many years. We, in the honest simplicity of our hearts, thought that Constitution good enough. Can you hope to make a better? Remember, too, that in the shipwreck of the State, trifles float, while all that is solid, and sacred, and venerable, may sink to the bottom and be lost forever.

SENEX.

[Our correspondent writes eloquently, and like a genuine patriot, as we know him to be. We fear, however, that he might as well "speak to the winds," as to those whom he addresses so fitly.]

THE LECTURE LAST NIGHT.—We had the pleasure, last evening, together with a host of our fellow-citizens, and a large number of ladies, to listen to the patriotic, well-timed and learned lecture of John Mullaly, Esq., the talented editor of the New York Metropolitan Record. The rapturous applause which frequently interrupted the speaker, showed that the words he uttered found an echo in the hearts of his hearers.—The lateness of the hour and our short space forbid an extended notice of the remarks of the distinguished gentleman, but suffice it to say that he will lecture again to night, taking for his subject the imaginative and versatile one of "The Yankee." We bespeak a thronged house to hear the gifted orator to-night.—Char. Bulletin, Saturday.

UNEMPLOYED.—Many of the negroes in this vicinity are as yet without employment or occupation of any kind, but they seem perfectly indifferent to obtaining either, determined to live, we suppose, by their wits. Thieving on a still more improved scale may be anticipated before the winter is over.—Roanoke News.

Prentice says that the aristocratic negroes are in a great rage at the preachers who tell them they must be born again.—They are afraid that the next time they might be born white men.

The term of twenty one United States Senators will expire on the 4th. of March, 1869, of whom fourteen are Republican and seven Democratic.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27th, 1st M.

HOUSE.—Under call of the States, the following bills, among others, were introduced: To tax National Banks; forbidding assessors and collectors from being interested directly or indirectly in forfeitures under the revenue laws; relating to suffrage on national questions (by Stevens;) to regulate appointments of government agents; providing temporary government for Wyoming territory; to provide an uniform currency and liquidate the national debt (by Catty;) declaring compromises for violations of the revenue, felony; and for the better organization of the United States District Court in Louisiana.

A resolution passed, repealing the territorial act of Montana, on account of the exclusion of certain classes from suffrage.

Several Executive communications were presented. Also a resolution of the Georgia Convention, urging the reorganization of the State Government, and the removal of disabilities and a modification of the test oath. Also a petition from members of the Louisiana Convention, praying the removal of Gen. Hancock and State and Parish officials. Also a petition from the Mississippi Convention, relative to the Freedmen's Bureau.

The bill forbidding certain claims arising out of the rebellion was resumed and passed—yeas 86, nays 63.

A resolution was adopted, after considerable filibustering, under a suspension of the rules, instructing the Reconstruction Committee to enquire whether combinations had been made or attempted to obstruct the due execution of the laws, with power to send for persons and papers.

Buckalew and Johnson opposed special legislation on the subject. The bill passed,—26 to 5.

Reconstruction bill resumed. Wilson favored the bill. In opening, he said: "In the thirteen years he had been in the Senate, he had listened to a great many speeches. He had heard the domineering Davis, the bantering Toombs, the plausible Mason, the wily Slidell, but he had never listened to a more wicked speech than that delivered by the Senator from Wisconsin, Mr. Doolittle, on Thursday last."

SOUTH CAROLINA CONVENTION.

CHARLESTON, Jan. 27th. P. M.

The Convention, to-day, was engaged in the consideration of the report of the Finance Committee, which recommends the levying a special Tax to defray the expenses of the Convention and preserve the credit of the State. The Committee recommended that the pay of the members be 10 per day, and 20 cents mileage, payable in bills receivable of the State.

Considerable excitement followed the adjournment of the Convention, growing out of an assault upon the Reporter of the Mercury, by a son of Collector Mackay, President of the Convention, on account of an abusive article in to-day's Mercury.

DAILY SENTINEL.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 28, 1868.

From the Washington Correspondence of the N. Y. World.

AN OFFICIAL REPORT OF THE JOHNSON-GRANT AFFAIR—STATEMENTS OF THE PRESIDENT AND CABINET OFFICERS AS TO THE CONDUCT AND PROMISES OF GEN. GRANT.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—The question of veracity that has been raised between President Johnson and Gen. Grant in certain journals compels your correspondent to make known the following facts, which confirm his original statement to the World, and which not only the President himself, but four of the most prominent members of his Cabinet, will positively vouch for:

Just after the formal meeting of the Cabinet on Jan. 17, the article from the National Intelligencer of the 15th. was read in presence of the President and the before mentioned members of the Cabinet. The statements made in that article, which were substantially those telegraphed after an interview with Mr. Johnson by the correspondent of the World, were agreed to by the President and all the Secretaries present; but the objection was made that they fell short of what actually occurred during the meeting of the Cabinet on Tuesday the 14th. instant. The first Secretary of member of the Cabinet present at the meeting on January 17th., referred to, observed that "General Grant acknowledged that he (Gen. Grant) had promised either to retain the office or to tender his resignation in time to enable the President to appoint a successor. He (Gen. Grant) said his opinion at the time was, that the 'ins' must stay in until the 'outs' could get in by due course of law."

The second Secretary said: "The Secretary's record, then, agrees with this newspaper statement, excepting that it is more full."

Whereupon the first Secretary said: "Yes, it gives a much more detailed account of what occurred here. Speaking of his withdrawal from the War Department, Grant said that he bolted one door of the Secretary's office on the inside, locked the other, and delivered the key to the Adjutant-General. He did not profess to know what transpired afterwards."

The second Secretary added: "It is not at all surprising that he (Grant) did not recollect. He was evidently too much confused to remember much."

Then the third Secretary remarked: "He (Grant) said that the discussion in the papers had caused him to look over the law, and he had found trouble in the second and first sections. He (Grant) remarked that he did not wish to be subjected to imprisonment and fine; when the President replied: 'Why, I told you, General, that I would take all the imprisonment and pay all the fines that might be imposed upon you.'"

The first Secretary continued: ("He meaning Grant) admitted all, and made a stammering excuse that had in it no intelligibility. He admitted that when the interview terminated Saturday he was to have seen the President on Monday upon the subject."

The second Secretary now observed: "He (Grant) admitted that if he changed his views the President was to be notified in season to enable the President to put the office in the same position as it was when he" (Grant) "was appointed Secretary ad interim."

The third Secretary then proceeded to say: "The President said to General Grant: 'I expected to see you Monday. Why did you not call?' Grant replied that he was 'too much occupied by General Sherman and by many little matters.'"

The second Secretary amended as follows: "I think he was engaged in the preparations necessary to an abdication of the War Office."

The fourth member of the Cabinet present declared: "And the fact was developed that General Sherman was here on Monday."

The President now pertinently said: "On Saturday, when he (Grant) referred to the tenure-of-office act, I told him that I would take all the imprisonment and pay all the fine that might be imposed upon him under its provisions. When he arose to leave the room I repeated the remark, for I wanted to know whether or not he intended to hold on to the office, designing to relieve him if it was his purpose to yield it."

The fourth member of the Cabinet went on to say to the President: "On Tuesday you told him that was the object of your conversation with him on Saturday."

The second Secretary spoke: "He (referring to Grant) did what I expected he would do."

[Your correspondent deems it best to omit the stronger terms employed by the speaker to denote his evident disgust at what he conceived to be the bad faith of Grant.]

The third Secretary said: "My idea is that he supposed that the Senate would act on Saturday, and he intended to carry over the President until Monday." The Senate not having acted then, he did not come to see the President on Monday, not wishing to see him until the whole thing had been consummated."

The President finished the conversation as follows: "I desired to know what he (Gen. Grant) would do, and did not think that he could have so misunderstood the agreement."

Your correspondent having communicated not merely in substance, but literally, the dialogue upon this subject which took place at the White House on Friday last between the Chief Executive and his Cabinet advisers, has merely to observe, in conclusion, that the signatures of all who rendered the testimony would doubtless be affixed to it if it should be officially denied.

J. B. S.

THE DIVISION OF THE SUPREME COURT.—It has been ascertained that upon the question of advancing the McArdle case upon the docket the Court stood—for the motion, Justices Clifford, Davis, Field, Grier, and Nelson; against it, the Chief Justice and Justices Miller and Swayne.

In the case of West Virginia, complainant, against the Commonwealth of Virginia, in the matter of the cession of the counties of Berkeley and Jefferson to West Virginia, the Court, as already announced, was equally divided, and so no decision was possible. The Court stood—for the complainant, the Chief Justice and Justices Grier, Miller, and Swayne; for the Commonwealth of Virginia, Justices Clifford, Davis, Field, and Nelson.

Two points were made in favor of the claim of West Virginia—one that Virginia, not being a State recognized by the political department of the United States Government, had no right to appear before the Court and file a bill; the second that the certificate of the Governor was conclusive as to the result of the vote of the citizens of these counties in favor of annexation to West Virginia.—*Wash. NEW ARRANGEMENT

FOR THE SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,

Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, } Editors.
Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;
Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;
The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;
The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;
The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;
The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;
Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.—The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Terms:

Daily Sentinel, for one year	$8 00
" " six months	4 00
" " three months	2 00
Semi-Weekly Sentinel, for one year	4 00
" " six months	2 00
" " three months	1 00
Weekly " for one year	2 00

All subscriptions strictly cash in advance.

As an advertising medium, the SENTINEL is equal to any in the State. Terms moderate.

☞ We ask every Conservative in the State to become our Agent to extend the circulation of the SENTINEL. The events of 1868 will be exciting and important. The WEEKLY SENTINEL should be in the hands of the great body of the people.—The terms are now so low that every one will be able to pay for it.

Important Order from Gen. Canby.

HEADQ'RS 2D MILITARY DISTRICT,
CHARLESTON, S. C., Dec. 31, 1867.

General Orders No. 184.

I. Paragraph II of General Orders No. 10, from the Headquarters of the Second Military District, dated April 11, 1867, is modified as follows:

SUITS FOR DEBTS.

Judgments or decrees for the payment of money on causes of action arising in North Carolina between the 20th of May, 1861, and the 20th day of April, 1865, and in South Carolina between the 19th day of December, 1860, and the 29th day of April, 1865, shall not be enforced, by execution, against the person or property of the defendant. Proceedings for such causes of action now pending, shall be stayed, and no suit or process shall be instituted or commenced on such causes of action until after the civil government of the respective States shall be established in accordance with the laws of the United States.

Paragraph III of the same order is modified as follows:

EXECUTIONS.

Sheriffs, coroners and constables are hereby directed to suspend the sale of all property upon execution, or process under any judgment or decree of a court of the so-called Confederate States, or of the State of North Carolina, rendered between the 20th. day of May, 1861, and the organization of the provisional government of said State, under the President's proclamation of the 29th. day of April, 1865, or of the State of South Carolina, rendered between the 19th. day of December, 1860, and the organization of the provisional government of the said State, under the President's proclamation of the 30th. day of June, 1865, unless the written consent of the defendant be entered of record, and, except in cases where the plaintiff or his attorney, upon oath, supported by corroborative testimony, shall allege that the defendant is disposing of, removing, or about to remove, his property beyond the jurisdiction of the court, with intent to defraud his creditors; provided, that no such judgment, so rendered, within the periods aforesaid, shall be a bar to the commencement, in a State court, of a new suit upon the same cause of action in any case in which, by law, the defendant may remove or appeal the same to a court of the United States.

FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGE.

The sale of real or personal property, by foreclosure of mortgage, is likewise suspended in the cases embraced in paragraphs II and III, of said order No. 10 as above amended, except in cases where interest money accruing subsequent to the 29th. of April, 1865, shall not have been paid before the day of sale, and all previous restrictions on such sales are revoked.

Paragraph IV of the same order is modified by substituting the 29th. day of April, 1865, for the 18th. day of May, 1866.

SUITS ON NEGRO DEBTS.

All proceedings for the recovery of money on contracts, whether under seal or by parol, the consideration of which was the purchase of slaves, made subsequent to the 1st. day of January, 1863, are suspended. Judgments or decrees entered for such causes of action shall not be enforced.

HOMESTEADS.

In all sales of property under execution or by order of any Court, there shall be reserved out of the property of any defendant who has a family dependent upon his or her labor, a dwelling house and appurtenances, and (if in the country) twenty acres of land, or so much thereof that the whole shall not exceed in value the sum of two thousand dollars, and in a town or city, the immediate lot upon which such dwelling house is situated; and necessary articles of furniture, apparel, subsistence and implements of husbandry, trade, or other employment, to the value of five hundred dollars. The homestead exemption shall inure only to the benefit of families. In other cases the exemption shall extend only to clothing and implements of trade or employment usually followed by the defendant, of the value of two hundred dollars. The exemptions hereby made shall not be waived or defeated by the act of any defendant who has a family dependent upon him or her for support, and the exempted property shall be ascertained and defined by the sheriff or other officer enforcing the execution, who shall call to his aid two impartial citizens to make the necessary appraisement, and shall make report thereof to the Court.

ARREST FOR FRAUDULENT DEBTS.

Paragraph X is hereby modified so as to authorize arrest in civil actions ex contractu only in cases where the demand is past due, and the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt sued for, or has removed or disposed of his property, or is about to do so, with intent to defraud his creditors, or is about to leave the State with such intent.

EXECUTORS AND TRUSTEES.

Paragraph XVI, is amended by adding thereto: All proceedings in any court of North Carolina, or South Carolina, recognizing or sanctioning the investment of the funds of minor heirs, or of females, or of insane persons, in the securities of the late rebel government, or the securities of the States of North Carolina or South Carolina, created for the purpose of carrying on war against the Government of the United States, will be suspended until the question of the validity of such investments shall have been determined by the courts of the United States, or by national legislation. And nothing in the provisions of this order, or of the order No. 10 above cited, shall be held to bar or hinder the recovery, by suit, of the estate of any minor heir, female or insane person, (cestui que trust), whether in the hands of executors, administrators, trustees, guardians, masters or clerks of equity courts, and other fiduciary agents, or invested by them in their fiduciary character.

DISTILLERIES.

II. General Order 25, of May 20, 1867, is revoked; and on and after the first day of January, 1868, the distillation of spirituous liquors in this Military District will be subject to such restrictions only as are imposed by the laws of the United States and of the States of North and South Carolina, respectively.

BAR ROOMS.

III. Paragraphs VI and VII of General Orders No. 32, dated May 20, 1867, are revoked, and the power to grant licenses for the sale of spirituous or intoxicating liquors is remitted to the proper local authories, to take effect on and after the 1st. day of January, 1868, and to be subject to the following conditions:

1. The municipal authorities granting the license shall be answerable that the parties to whom such licenses are granted, together with their sureties, shall be responsible persons and of good moral standing in the community, and that both principal and sureties shall be able to qualify individually in double the amount of the bond required, and that the bond shall be a lien upon the personal property of both principal and sureties, and upon proof of default shall warrant the summary seizure and sale of so much of the property of either or both as may be necessary to satisfy the forfeiture or fine and costs.

2. Drunkenness or disorderly conduct on the premises shall work the forfeiture of the license and of the penalty of the bond.

3. The owner or keeper of any bar-room, saloon or other place at which intoxicating liquors are sold, and all other persons interested or connected therewith, shall be regarded as principals in any action of damages growing out of any assault, riot, affray or other disorder occurring on the premises, or directly traceable thereto.

4. All bar-rooms, saloons or other places at which intoxicating liquors are sold, shall be closed on the day or days of any general or local election, and for the twelve hours next preceding the opening and next succeeding the closing of the polls at such election; and the sheriffs of counties and districts and the chief of police of cities and towns shall have power to direct the closing of bar-rooms and other places for the sale of intoxicating liquors, whenever it may be necessary in their judgment to preserve order and quiet.

5. The proceeds of all licenses, forfeitures and fines, under the local regulations or under the provisions of military orders, will be devoted to the support of the poor, and as soon as realized will be turned over to the Commissioners or Overseers of the poor of the District County, City or Town in which they are accrued, and the Commissioners or Overseers will at the end of each month report to the Provost Marshal-General of the District the amount received by them during the month, specifying the name of the parties from whom it was received.

6. The penalties imposed by this order or by the local police regulations, may be enforced in any civil or military Court, and upon conviction the Court may award to the informer a sum not exceeding fifty per cent. of the forfeitures or fine. And it is made the duty of all Sheriffs, Constables, and Coroners of Counties and Districts, and the police of cities and towns, to be vigilant in the enforcement of the police regulations and the provisions of this order in relation to the sale of intoxicating liquors.

The provisions of this paragraph will be held to apply to such licenses granted under General Orders No. 32, to inn-keepers, as remain unexpired after the first of January, 1868.

DISTRICT COURTS.

IV. To promote the speedy trial of prisoners confined for minor offences, and diminish the cost of their maintenance, all committing magistrates will, on the 15th. and last days of each month, report to the judge of their county or District Court all commitments made by them during the preceding half month, specifying the date of commitments, the names of the prisoners, and the offences for which they were committed, to the end that the judges may, whenever in their opinion the number of prisoners or other considerations of public interest call for it, hold

... of their courts, for the purpose of dispatching such cases. The additional expense of holding such special terms will be a charge upon the State Treasury, and the accounts therefor will be audited and paid as accounts of a similar character are now audited and paid, and if the salaries now paid the judges should be inadequate in view of the additional labor performed by them, a reasonable addition, upon proper representation through the Governor of the State, will be allowed.

PILOTAGE.

V. The pilotage regulations now existing in the States of North and South Carolina are so far modified that, on and after the first day of March, 1868, all passenger steam vessels, regulated by the laws of the United States, and carrying a pilot commissioned by United States Commissioners, shall be exempt from the compulsory payment of pilotage.

NORTH CAROLINA POLL TAX.

VI. So much of the act of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, entitled "An act to raise monies," ratified on the 20th. day of February, 1867, as makes it "the duty of all persons and corporations to list and pay the [poll] tax of such persons liable to the same, as are in their employment, on the 1st. day of April of each year, as laborers," is rescinded, and hereafter all individual taxes will be assessed directly upon and collected directly from the individuals from whom they are due: provided, that the provisions of this order shall not apply to the taxes levied for the current year except that double poll tax shall not be enforced if the original tax be paid on or before the 1st. day of March, 1868.
